R. Craig Lord is named Quality Leader by Qualified Remodeler Magazine.

Moorestown, NJ, (July, 2010)

R. Craig Lord Construction Company, a nationally recognized remodeling firm in Moorestown, NJ, was recently named one of 55 Quality Leaders in the nation by Qualified Remodeler Magazine. This recognition of excellence, chosen from all forms of remodeling companies, reflects R. Craig Lord Construction Company's ongoing commitment to exceeding clients' expectations. To be eligible, companies had to score above a 90% referral rate from recent clients. R Craig Lord Construction was one of twenty-one companies to have a 100% referral rate as measured by GuildQuality, Inc."

"A big reason for our success is that after we finish a job, we take the time to ask our clients how their remodeling experience went. A year later we ask them again, this gives us information on where we can improve" stated R. Craig Lord, company president. "Customer satisfaction is a top priority for us. We are very happy that our clients are pleased with us."

The May 2010 edition lists the 55 chosen Quality Leaders. To learn more about Quality Leaders, visit: <http://www.qualifiedremodeler.com>
